Assignment No. 2

Q 1 Explain any two SDG's

1] End poverty in all its forms ~~ex~~ everywhere

Despite considerable progress in the fight against poverty since 1990, over 800 million people, 70% of whom are women, still live in extreme poverty. The new sustainable development agenda will now aim to eradicate extreme poverty by 2030.

Beside aiming to eradicate extreme poverty. Goal takes a comprehensive approach to poverty as whole by including a target on relative poverty based on national definitions. The poor are particularly ~~vulnerable~~ vulnerable to economic & ~~part~~ political crises loss of biodiversity & ecosystems services & natural disasters & violence to ensure that people who have ~~ex~~ escaped poverty do not fall back into it this goal also involve measures to strengthen livelihood resilience including the establishment of social security system

2] Reduced Inequality.

Global inequality are massive & present one of biggest obstacles to sustainable development & fight against poverty. Inequality within many countries has been rising in recent years. Inequalities limit the opportunities for social groups to participate in and make significant contribution to social, cultural, ~~part~~ political and economic life. Therefore Goal focuses on reducing inequality within & among countries.

In concrete terms, Goal 10 advocates delivering sustained income growth to the ~~poor~~ poorest 40% of the global population & achieving empowerment & social economic and political inclusion for all by 2030. Goal is to ensure equal opportunities through the elimination of discriminatory laws, policies & practices while facilitating orderly & safe human migration and mobility via the implementation of sound migration ~~at~~ policies for a example.

Q 2 Explain significance of moral education

The moral word comes from a latin root & means the code or customs of a people. The social give that defines how individuals should line together.

Moral values are values that express ideas about the good life. As such concern for the moral virtues such as honesty responsibility & respect for others its the domain of moral education

Since young people readily & unconsciously assimilate all types of influences, good or bad if they do not have proper guidance. It is important society provides them with a type of education that will make them acquire sound religious & moral principles & also develop appropriate ~~attid~~ attitudes & values meet will help them to make good choices & decisions in their adulthood

Moral education, then refers to helping children acquire those virtues or moral habits that will help them refers to helping children acquire those virtues or moral habits that will help them individually ~~live~~ live good lives & at the same time become productive contributing member of their community.

A moral education system must begin by defining the morals which ~~are~~ are ~~not~~ most important for not only the individual but for the society as a whole.
